Issuing Authority: All-China Federation of Labor

No Pages: 153

Language: Chinese

Area of Coverage: China-Northeast, Mukden, Harbin; North China, Tientsin, T'ang-shan, Dairen

Subjects Covered: Labor unions; political, cultural, and vocational education of workers; technical training; apprenticeship system.

Scholarship Evaluation: Official documents and newspaper articles

Review: Section 1 is a compilation of directives and decisions of the Government Administration Council and the All-China Federation of Labor regarding the launching of the workers spare-time educational program.
Includes editorials from the Kung-jen Jih-pao and Peiping Jen-min Jih-pao endorsing the program.

Section 2 contains selected articles on the progress of the spare-time education movement in Northeast China, Tientsin, T'ang-shan, Mukden, and Peiping; and reports on evening schools and literacy classes in mines, factories, textile plants, street car companies, and retail establishments in various cities.

Section 3 deals with various phases of technical education, and the apprentice system. Articles in appendix deal with absenteeism "make-up" classes, and student problems. Data on the literacy rate indicate the problem of training skilled workers for the industrialization program.
